

Lauri Rosendahl
President
Nasdaq Stockholm AB

Lauri Rosendahl is President of Nasdaq Stockholm AB (Stockholmsbörsen), at the Nasdaq European Headquarters in Stockholm. Mr. Rosendahl also holds the position as Senior Vice President, European Equities and Post Trade within Nasdaq European Markets. He has worked for Nasdaq since 2009.

Mr. Rosendahl has over 20 years of experience in the financial markets, having held several senior management positions within securities trading, equity research and investment banking with several banks and brokers including Deutsche Bank, ABN Amro / Alfred Berg, Carnegie and Kaupthing. He also has a long renowned career as a telecom equipment analyst.

Currently, Mr. Rosendahl is board member and chairman of the Society for Sustainable Value Creation in Sweden (2016-), board member of The Association for Generally Accepted Principles in the Securities Market in Sweden (2016-), and a board member of SHoF, Swedish House of Finance (2016-). Further, Mr. Rosendahl is a Supervisory Board member of EuroCCP N.V. (2014-) and the Chairman of its Remuneration Committee.